

House Resolution 1184

By: Representatives Borders of the 175th, Black of the 174th, and Shaw of the 176th

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing January 30, 2006, as Capitol Tech Day; and for other purposes.

2 WHEREAS, rapid and constant innovations in our society have dramatically altered today's 3 economy, demanding a workforce that is prepared to meet the technological needs of the 21st 4 Century; and

5 WHEREAS, given these recent advances, it is imperative that our students are given the 6 opportunity to gain technological skills that will foster productivity in business and industry 7 and that will support our state's leadership in the global marketplace; and

8 WHEREAS, strong technology training in our classrooms will mean more opportunities for 9 our children and a greater appeal for national and international businesses considering 10 establishing headquarters in Georgia; and

11 WHEREAS, technology integrated classrooms give students the chance to apply all kinds of 12 skills, including reading, writing, science, and mathematics, to real world situations and 13 strengthen their understanding of the connection between what they learn in school and the 14 demands of the workplace; and

15 WHEREAS, on Capitol Tech Day, technology students, leaders, providers, and supporters 16 come together for the purpose of sharing information, exchanging ideas and research, and 17 planning for future technology literacy initiatives.

18 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 19 the members of this body join together in recognizing January 30, 2006, as Capitol Tech Day
20 in Georgia and encourage all Georgians to explore the advantages of greater technology 21 literacy for the 21st Century.
